

AUSTRIAN TROOPS MASSED TO INVADE SERBIAN TERRITORY

bridge spanning the Save River at Semlin. It is at Semlin that Austria has concentrated the greatest force for the invasion of Serbia.

Reports were received here to-day that an engagement was in progress near the mouth of the Temes River, east of Belgrade.

Reports of Servians firing on an Austrian boat bearing troops on the Danube were confirmed to-day. This encounter occurred near Semendria, twenty-four miles southeast of Belgrade, where some vessels conveying Austrian infantry were fired on from the Servian side of the Danube. The fire was vigorously returned, but the result of the engagement is not yet known.

Martial law practically prevails throughout the entire country. All telephone and telegraph lines are in control of the Government. The railroads have also been taken over and are guarded by troops. Army censors control all telegrams sent and the Government holds authority to open all letters and other communications.

Austria is determined to force Serbia's acquiescence in every demand made in the ultimatum delivered last week. Emperor Franz Joseph is said to have directed that extreme measures be taken to break up the Pan-Servian societies and obtain assurances that all army officers involved in the plot to assassinate Archduke Ferdinand be punished.

The dual monarchy is to-day relying upon the support of Germany if Russia sees fit to disregard the warning of the other powers and interfere in the conflict. Austria is apparently determined upon war, content to leave the matter of keeping the conflict localized to the other Powers. Italy has notified Austria that in accordance with her relations with the Triple Alliance, she will remain friendly.

Servian Crown Prince Takes Lead of Army

BELGRADE, July 27.—Reports circulated throughout Serbia to-day that King Peter is assured of Russia's support in a war with Austria, aroused even greater determination to resist to the last the demands of the dual monarchy contained in the ultimatum delivered last week.

The entire Servian army is being mobilized. Crown Prince Alexander will take command in the field and all preparations are being made for the defense of Nish, now serving as the capital of the kingdom. Parliament, the court, the National Bank and in fact the entire government has been transferred to Nish.

Across the Danube Austrian troops may be seen to-day mobilizing for an attack. Austrian boats are moving up and down the Danube carrying material of bridges and other equipment necessary for the invasion, while a large force of the army is massed at Semlin.

Belgrade is all but deserted to-day. Panic stricken inhabitants poured out of the city following the withdrawal of the garrison, fearing the Austrians would invade the town at any moment.

It was decided to-day to suspend the operations of the Stock and Bond Exchanges here until Thursday.

WAR INEVITABLE, WASHINGTON TOLD; U. S. WILL NOT ACT

Official Reports Declare Russia Is Sure to Do Battle With Austria.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—The gravity of the European situation was reflected in an official despatch from St. Petersburg to-day, saying the Russian Minister of War had said he considered war between Russia and Austria as almost inevitable.

His statement was made after the Russian Ministry had issued an official declaration that Russia was greatly disturbed and could not remain indifferent in the crisis that had arisen between Serbia and Austria-Hungary.

The order for the complete mobilization of the Russian army was confirmed.

President Wilson said to-day, in answer to inquiries whether the United States would try to bring about peace in Europe, that he had not considered the subject, but that the traditional policy of the United States was not to mix in European affairs. He intimated that in the present crisis the United States could do nothing.

CHICAGO FOREIGNERS WILL JOIN COLORS IF WAR IS FORCED.

CHICAGO, July 27.—A large contingent of the 20,000 Servians in Chicago probably will return to their homes if war is declared with Austria, it was said to-day after a number of enthusiastic meetings had been held in the foreign districts.

Many Germans will go home to fight if their country is involved. Every German in this country who is on the reserve list is under moral obligation to his flag, according to Baron von Reiche of the German Consulate.

A mass meeting of young Servians was held to-day to raise funds and plan for sending soldiers from this country.

CLEVELAND HUNGARIANS AWAIT CALL TO WAR

CLEVELAND, O., July 27.—Six thousand trained Hungarian soldiers will go from Cleveland to take up arms for their country against Serbia on the first call to arms, it was said here to-day by leaders of the local colony.

All are members of the First Reserve of the Austro-Hungarian army and are associated with sixty-two national Hungarian societies in Cleveland. It was said the greater part of the men could be sent from Cleveland within three days.

PITTSBURGH WILL SEND 18,000 MEN TO WAR.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 27.—Six thousand trained Hungarian soldiers will go from Pittsburgh to take up arms for their country against Serbia on the first call to arms, it was said here to-day by leaders of the local colony.

All are members of the First Reserve of the Austro-Hungarian army and are associated with sixty-two national Hungarian societies in Pittsburgh. It was said the greater part of the men could be sent from Pittsburgh within three days.

Emperor William, Whose Army May Give Aid to Austria, And Czar of Russia, Who Is Expected to Help the Servians

BRITAIN LEADING IN THE EFFORTS TO AVERT A WAR

Sir Edward Grey Calls a Conference of Representatives of Powers.

Copyright, 1914, by The Press Publishing Co. (The New York World).

LONDON, July 27.—The only hope of averting general war in Europe rests in the final efforts of diplomacy being made to-day in the capitals of the belligerent powers. In the negotiations England is assuming the leading role. The plan is to call a conference of ambassadors. It is stated officially that the chief hopes of peace lie in England's attitude.

The principal newspapers of Germany to-day warn the people to keep cool and discourage a repetition of Saturday night's violent demonstrations in the streets. The result on Sunday afternoon and evening was that while there were large crowds in the streets of Berlin, especially in Unter den Linden and in front of the Austrian embassy, they were comparatively uneventful.

The German people, say despatches of this morning, are beginning to realize that it is no longer a mere question of cheering on their Austrian ally to fight a smaller and weaker nation, but of carrying their own hides to the market.

CALLS CONFERENCES OF GREAT POWERS TO END WAR TALK.

LONDON, July 27.—Sir Edward Grey has invited the Governments of Austria-Hungary, Serbia and Russia to suspend operations pending the result of his proposed mediatory conference in London. His suggestion in regard to the conference is that the French, German and Italian ambassadors in London should confer with him in the endeavor to find a means of solving the differences.

The Italian Government to-day informed Sir Edward that it accepted his invitation. Sir Edward, in announcing in the House of Commons the steps to be taken to bring about mediation in the Austro-Servian controversy, said: "I understand that the German Government is favorable to mediation in principle as between Russia and Austria, but to our particular proposal to apply that principle by means of a conference the German Government has not yet replied."

Sir Edward, who evidently was deeply impressed by the gravity of the situation, concluded by expressing the opinion that the failure of these efforts to bring about a settlement would lead to "the greatest catastrophe which could befall the concert of Europe, and its consequences would be incalculable."

It is generally understood in diplomatic circles that Austria will delay any movement toward the occupation of Belgrade until to-morrow, so that Germany and the other powers may have ample time in their efforts to localize the war. Only assurances from Russia that the Czar's government will keep hands off are awaited to satisfy the other Powers. All indications point to Russia's refusal to give such assurances.

CAILLAUX AND BERNSTEIN CAUSE BEDLAM IN COURT

Third Duel Growing Out of the Trial of Ex-Premier's Wife May Result From Bitter Clash—Testimony in Case Closes.

PARIS, July 27.—All the testimony in the trial of Mme. Caillaux for the wilful murder of Gaston Calmette, editor of the Figaro, has been heard and the speeches of counsel for the prosecution and defense are to be delivered to-morrow.

The closing of the testimony was attended by an uproar in court following a clash between ex-Premier Caillaux, husband of the prisoner, and Henri Bernstein, the author, that will probably lead to a third duel as the outgrowth of the trial.

Caillaux while testifying had attacked Bernstein—recalling his army career and the charge that he was a deserter. When Bernstein replied the applause and howling caused such an uproar that Judge Albanel had the court cleared and suspended the sittings. The playwright abandoned all semblance of courtesy in addressing the former Premier as "Caillaux," without any prefix. He said:

"We have just witnessed the French Treasury committing a felony by appropriating a will and turning it over to Caillaux. Then we have seen Ministers of State come here and declare, in order to cover up their former colleague, that diplomatic documents accepted with thanks by the President of the republic are forgeries. After President Poincaré is feeble-minded or his Ministers have lied. M. Caillaux stands on a cliff and makes a pedestal of it."

"But," interrupted Judge Albanel, "this is literature."

M. Bernstein: "M. Caillaux recalls a folly of my youth. To-day I am in the fighting service of the artillery and if war comes I shall be at the front. If M. Caillaux were there he could not replace himself by a woman. He must fire himself."

In addition to assailing Bernstein in his testimony, Caillaux had bitterly attacked the record of Editor Calmette who was killed by the wife of the ex-Premier.

Mme. Caillaux, when she took her seat to-day, appeared much calmer than she had been on the preceding days. She had, however, suffered from two fainting spells last night as a result of the severe strain she had undergone Saturday when she swooned at the reading of the love letters sent to her by Caillaux, former French Premier, while he was still the husband of Mme. Gueydan.

As soon as Judge Louis Albanel and his three associates had taken their seats on the bench M. Caillaux demanded to be heard. He said:

"The Figaro having accused me to-day of suborning witnesses, I should like to submit to the court some authentic papers concerning the late Gaston Calmette's relations with the Hungarian Government. I have hesitated to use them, but I have decided to do so in view of the Figaro's attitude. I desire also to read the late M. Calmette's will."

Maitre Chenu—How did you get it? M. Caillaux—In the same way that you got my letters. M. Caillaux then proceeded to read the will.

M. Caillaux afterward said: "I shall not repeat what I have said already about the bonds which united the Figaro to certain foreign personalities. I merely inform the jury that I place at the disposition of the court authentic documents by Gaston Calmette stipulating in the clearest possible fashion the conditions under which the Figaro would work in the interests of the Hungarian Government. Every Frenchman will realize to-day what would have been the effect of that work."

"These documents are of unimpeachable authenticity. They were given me by Count Kasorly, chief of the Hungarian Radical Party."

When he had concluded M. Caillaux handed a bundle of papers to the presiding judge. They were not read in court.

In his speech, M. Caillaux had mentioned the name Philippe Glaser as a signatory of the documents with Gaston Calmette. Glaser is one of the leading editors of the Figaro.

After the reading of the will, which disposed of $2,000,000, M. Caillaux said:

"We may well be astonished at the singularly rapid increase of M. Calmette's fortune. In our middle class families it would take one hundred and fifty years for such a fortune to accumulate."

Maitre Chenu: "Would M. Caillaux tell us in what way all this excuses the crime of his wife?"

M. Caillaux replied hotly: "There are some questions which ought not to be asked, but since I am asked I shall answer. There is something perhaps worse than losing one's life; that is to live by attacking women and enriching one's self at their expense."

While reading the will of M. Calmette, M. Caillaux said: "I wish to draw particular attention to the clause saying: 'A greater part of the fortune I leave comes from a personal gift made to me by Madame Bourain, it being understood that I paid her an income therefrom during her life.'"

"What do we gather from this will?" M. Caillaux continued. "First of all, that the act of gift was executed illegally, which constitutes a testimonial fraud. How did Madame Bourain, who inherited from M. Cahaucaud, under conditions it was better not to dwell upon, from 40,000,000 to 50,000,000 francs, consent to give up 5,000,000 to M. Calmette? It has never been explained, but an explanation has been brought to me which I have despaired to use."

Dr. Eugene Doyen, called to the stand, testified that Calmette's wounds were not necessarily fatal; that with proper medical attendance the editor would have lived. If the hemorrhage had been stopped by means of hemostatic pliers when Calmette was taken to the clinic he would have been on his feet in two weeks' time, the witness asserted.

SPARS FOR SHAMROCK IV. ARRIVE ON MINNEWASKA

Passengers, Horses, Monkeys and Lions Also Come In on Liner

The racing mast and boom of the Shamrock IV. arrived here to-day on the Atlantic Transport liner Minnewaska. It was said on board the steamer that the mast and boom cost $10,000. The Minnewaska brought 150 passengers, 100 horses, 24 monkeys and two lions. The passengers declared that the trip was most delightful. The weather was cool and the sea like a mill-pond.

When the passengers got tired playing games on deck they used to go to the zoo below decks. The lions, Jimmy and Babe, are from Nairobi, East Africa, and are sixteen months old. The horses are of Percheron and Belgian stock and will be taken out West as rivals for auto trucks.

GERMANY WILL ACT IF RUSSIA ORDERS ARMY MOBILIZATION

BERLIN, July 27.—It is understood here that Russia to-day formally informed Germany that no mobilization of the army had been ordered in Russia, although certain precautionary military measures had been taken by the country.

In consequence of this communication Germany has decided not to take any corresponding steps, but it is declared that Russian mobilization would be the signal for immediate German mobilization.

WAR IS DECLARED, AUSTRIAN CONSUL HERE IS NOTIFIED

Arranges With Steamship Lines to Rush 200,000 Reserves to the Colors.

SERVANS BUSY, TOO.

Officials of Both Countries

Here Believe Strife Is Certain to Come.

Official advice that war had been declared in Austria were received at the Austro-Hungarian Consulate to-day. The nature of the despatches, which were in code, from both Vienna and Washington, were not disclosed by Dr. Ernst Winter, acting Consul-General for Austria-Hungary.

The despatches were sent last night, but were muddled in sending so that Dr. Winter had to order them repeated over the wires to-day. Anticipating the declaration of war, preparations to get in touch with the Austro-Hungarian reserves in this country were begun Sunday night by Dr. Winter and his consulate staff.

Announcements were made in the Austro-Hungarian newspapers and to-day the offices of the consulate at No. 24 State street were crowded with reserves who came to furnish their present addresses so that the consulate may reach them at a moment's notice.

The Consulate also began negotiation with officials of the Austro-American steamship line to hold vessels of that line in readiness to transport the reserves when the order is received calling them to the colors.

CONSULATE CROWDED WITH RESERVES EAGER FOR DUTY.

The ones which attended the round up of reserves two years ago, when the Balkan conflict began, were not half so bustling as those witnessed at the Consulate this morning.

Two hours before the doors opened the corridor of the third floor was filled with men, most of them between twenty-two and thirty-five years. The telephones at the Consulate were kept so busy Sunday that to-day orders were given to the attaché not to answer until the rush of office work was over.

Among the prominent faces were those of the Hungarian orchestra leaders from the fashionable uptown hotels.

Consul-General Alexander von Numa is absent in Vienna on his annual vacation. Dr. Winter, who served as a lieutenant in the Austrian army, is in complete charge, and is assisted by Lieutenant Frank Ziska, Secretary to the Consul-General. There are two Austrian army captains in the Consulate also.

"There are 200,000 Austro-Hungarian reserves in this country," said Dr. Winter to-day. "All of them have been trained in the regular army for two years."

"Service in the reserve corps is for ten years, and every three years the men in this country report to this office. There are about 30,000 reserves in the district covered by this consulate, which embraces New York, Connecticut and New Jersey."

SERVANS, TOO, ARE READY TO GO TO THE FRONT.

At the Servian Consulate, No. 448 West Twenty-second street, all was serene. Consul-General M. I. Pupin is in Connecticut and the office is in charge of Paul H. Pavlovich, the consulate secretary, who is also secretary of the Serb-American Educational Alliance. The telephones at the Consulate had been kept pretty busy Sunday night, but no official advice had been received. It is known that the Serb reserves in this country have kept in readiness since the Bulgarian conflict and little work is necessary to get the men together now.

The first message to greet Secretary Pavlovich this morning was a long night letter from 400 Serbs in Los Angeles, offering their services. The message read:

"Inform us at once by telegraph if you have received information from Serbia. What is better for us to do, to combine volunteers or to collect money? We await impatiently your answer."

"THE SERB SOKO AND COMMITTEE OF THE RED CROSS."

The Serb Soko is a Pan-Slavonic semi-political and military body of young Serb athletes.

There are about 100,000 Serbs in this country who would fight if called upon, Mr. Pavlovich stated. In New York and vicinity there are about 2,000 Serbs, while the greater number work in the mines out West and in the steel mills of Pennsylvania.

"War is inevitable," said Mr. Pavlovich to-day. "We have no official advice and we are not exciting our subjects. The Serb is a very impulsive citizen and would leave his work and his family if he thought there was going to be war. We do not want them to leave their work until it is absolutely necessary."
